

Gender Studies: Cultures, Societies and Policies - Special prizes

(Approved by the AC on 21/10/2020)

- Criteria and weightings

1. Relevance doctoral thesis (70%)
  - a. Social, political, economic and / or cultural impact of the thesis: up to 20%
  - b. Advancement in existing knowledge on the subject: up to 20%
  - c. Use of an innovative methodology in the field of the thesis: up to 20%
  - d. Others: up to 10%
2. Publications (10%)
  - a. Articles in indexed journals: up to 5%
  - b. Books and book chapters in prestigious publishers: up to 5%
3. Participation in academic conferences (with presentation of communication, presentation or poster) (10%)
  - a. International conferences: up to 7%
  - b. National conferences: up to 3%
4. Mobility stays (10%)
  - a. Over 3 months: up to 7%
  - b. Less than 3 months: up to 3%

The Academic Committee of the doctoral program will appoint an external committee of experts to make a proposal based on the criteria indicated, in order to facilitate the resolution of the Academic Committee.

- Required complementary documentation

The presentation of the supporting documentation of the criteria is necessary, and a document in which the applicant indicates the relevant factors of the thesis.